Article Body:

These moving tips may include a few things you hadn't thought of, or things you just need to know.

1. Get rid of things. Consider carefully what you need to keep. People spend hundreds of dollars on things they don't need.
2. Have a yard sale. It's a good way to get rid of those things, and you might even raise enough money to help pay for the move.
3. Use lists. You will forget things, especially if you don't have a list or two. Start with a list of things you need to take with you.
4. Make the the moving company reservation a month ahead. You wouldn't want to find out they are booked when you need them.
5. Pack early. It's hard to say how long it will take until you are doing it. Start early to avoid the stress of a last-minute rush.
6. Have an "essentials" box. This will have things to make your arrival easier, like toilet paper, a change of clothes, and some food.
7. Check weather reports. It's no fun arriving in a snowstorm with your coat packed away somewhere.
8. Notify family and friends of your new address and phone number(s). Do this before you have to leave.
9. Save your receipts. Save receipts for moving expenses, like gas, hotel rooms, and anything else you spend money on.
10. try to re-establish your routines quickly. It helps to quickly re-establish routines in your new home.
