

Title:

Tippling For The Holidays: Who To Gift And How Much?

Word Count:

398

Summary:

The holidays are the time of year to share your love and appreciation to the most important people in your life.

But how do you know how much to tip?

Holiday tips will vary according to your means, the city in which you live and the type of relationship.

Keywords:

advice, tip, tipping, christmas, gift, gift giving, presents, holiday

Article Body:

The holidays are the time of year to share your love and appreciation to the most important people in your life.

But how do you know how much to tip?

Holiday tips will vary according to your means, the city in which you live and the type of relationship.

* Newspaper person: $15-$25 for daily, $5-$15 for weekend

* Doorman: $25-$100

* Building Custodian: $20-$30

* Building Superintendent: $30-$100 depending on building

* Housekeeper: A week's pay or more

* Babysitter: Two nights pay, or a small gift

* Hair stylist: The cost of a session, plus a small gift

* Personal Trainer: $50

* Parking Attendants: A half-month's garage rate divided among attendants; or $10-$20 per person

If giving cash doesn't feel quite right, is too formal, or policy prohibits it, why not give a gift certificate?

Gift certificates are a versatile and personal way to show your thanks. And while the USPS does not allow gift certificates to be sent by mail, you can still give them in person.

Imagine giving a gift certificate where your recipient can choose the store! GiftCertificates.com is the perfect solution.

Other people who might enjoy a SuperCertificate® include:

* Teachers

* School Crossing Guard

* Mail carrier (USPS Policy: "Cash equivalent can't exceed $20")

* Co-workers

* Your Administrative Assistant

By giving the gift of choice, you can make the holidays shine bright for someone special with a SuperCertificate®.

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>