

Title:

To Will Or Not To Will, Do's And Don'ts In Making A Will

Word Count:

427

Summary:

First things first, you should have a will. Wills not only do the obvious: distribute wealth a

The following are things one should and should not do in making a will:

Do update your will

Everything changes. Possessions, money can increase or decrease. Estate tax laws change in a w

Keywords:

will, estate, executor

Article Body:

First things first, you should have a will. Wills not only do the obvious: distribute wealth a

The following are things one should and should not do in making a will:

Do update your will

Everything changes. Possessions, money can increase or decrease. Estate tax laws change in a w

Do name the correct executor

Executors should be ethical, honest, and efficient and be ready to give his or her service at

Do not name the same person as guardian and trustee

It helps to not name the person you entrust with your children with the same person you entrus

Do not leave too much for a spouse

Leaving money that is more than sufficient to your spouse is not a very good idea. It takes aw

Do not be too specific

Some families fight as to who gets the blender and who gets the kitchen sink. It is important

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>