Taking the guesswork out of hiring a contractor has proven a successful formula for Homeservice Club. For homeowners, the system not only guarantees the work, it ends the stress of dealing with contractors. For contractors, the system ensures they are kept working at capacity with less time spent on marketing. The Club's unique "quote" system and its Double Guarantee set it apart from simple contractor

"We take the hassle out of home renovations," explains Club president Richard Felton. "There's no more waiting for a contractor. But, says Felton, the most important aspect of his business is the "Double Guarantee" he offers and skipping town, or not finishing the job. That's what sets us apart in the home renovation industry. Homeservice Club has been in the business of protecting homeowners since Harry Felton opened the Club. Club members also have access to an extensive shopping network offering discounts on everything from home appliances to furniture. The Homeservice Club model is a win-win deal for both the homeowner and the contractor, says Felton.
