

Title:

10 Questions You Should Answer Before Building An Internet Business

Word Count:

589

Summary:

If you believe that the internet is still in its infancy, then you have to be aware that the i

If you still think that you can easily make fortune out of the internet, then you may miss the

Keywords:

Article Body:

If you believe that the internet is still in its infancy, then you have to be aware that the i

If you still think that you can easily make fortune out of the internet, then you may miss the

You should understand that building an internet business is different from making money from t

While building an internet business may 'cost' you big investment, making money from the inter

So, to do it correctly, you should ask yourself these questions before building any internet b

1. Do you have a vision?

What is your business vision? You should have it clear in your mind what your business be in t

2. Do you recognize your business strength?

What is your business strength? This will affect the whole concept and strategies of your busi

3. Do you set your business goals?

What missions you want to be accomplished to achieve your business vision? These missions will

4. Do you have a business strategy?

What to do to win your business? Use a Plan-Do-Check-Act cycle to test your business strategy.

5. Do you have the technology?

What technology needed for your business? What will be involving? You need to decide which tec

6. Do you have good quality products to offer?

What products you want to offer to your customer? You have to make sure that the product you w

7. Do you have a good quality customer?

What kind of customer will you have? One part of your business activity should be about findin

8. Do you have a good quality information to offer?

Your customer needs information. Unless you can provide it, you won't win the business game.

9. Do you have a business coach?

Who will mentor and watch your business growth from the outside? Sometimes you need more than

10. Do you have the guts, the passion, the patient and the endurance toward the business?

The last things you should have: guts, passion, patient and endurance to build your business.

If you can't answer just one of the 10 questions above, then you may cancel or think over again

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1
Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>
Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>