

Title:

A Beginner's Toolbox: 8 Things Every Home Should Have

Word Count:

424

Summary:

Congratulations! You're living out on your own. If you're renting an apartment or bought a home,

1. A flashlight. This is crucial, even if you don't buy anything else on the list. If the power

Keywords:

Article Body:

Congratulations! You're living out on your own. If you're renting an apartment or bought a home,

1. A flashlight. This is crucial, even if you don't buy anything else on the list. If the power

2. A screwdriver. For maximum efficiency, and especially if you are going to be doing just lit

3. A tape measure. Ask anyone who has ever rented an apartment and then couldn't fit the couch

4. Adjustable pliers. Maybe two pair, one large and one small. Maybe the previous owner or ten

5. An adjustable wrench. This will help you tighten (or loosen) nuts and bolts. You can change

6. A hammer. Hang things on the wall, close up a paint can securely, or pound in stakes so you

7. An electric drill. You can keep it pretty basic, but a drill can save lots of time. Buy one

8. A first aid kit. Don't own a home without one. If you're a first timer with any of the rest

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>