What should you look for in a genuine Internet marketing or home business opportunity?

1. A tangible product that is totally unrelated to selling Internet marketing opportunities.
2. An affiliate scheme that gives you your own website.
3. A recognition by the provider that you must spend some cash promoting your affiliate link.
4. No up-front fee

Let's consider these points one at a time:

1. Tangible products can be as diverse as selling Self-Improvement courses and Personal Wedding
2. Affiliate schemes pay you a percentage of the price paid by the customer. Affiliate schemes
3. Many affiliate schemes grow by providing a free website and going along with the optimistic
4. All information is available for free on the Internet. An extremely small number of people

One more tip:

- Beware Information Overload. Research, choose one scheme and stick with it until it is earni
