

Title:

How Search Engine Spiders Work

Word Count:

755

Summary:

There are hundreds of search engines available today, but some are far more complex than others.

Let's start with a smaller engine: InfoSeek. They only index about 200 words of your web page,

Keywords:

search engine optimization,SEO,search engine optimization,search engine marketing,se marketing

Article Body:

There are hundreds of search engines available today, but some are far more complex than others.

Let's start with a smaller engine: InfoSeek. They only index about 200 words of your web page,

These simple rules are important to keep in mind for all search engines. The more important the

The AltaVista search engine will send Scooter, its spider, to check out your entire site. Scooter

Excite used to be a search powerhouse, but has now been dropped as the provider of AOL and Net

Let's move on to Lycos. Lycos has fully integrated the Open Directory Project (ODP) into their

Even though WebCrawler is owned by Excite, it still has its own search engine and indexer. If

The biggest player is, of course, Google, who use a page ranking system as the central basis of

MSN is another important search engine. The holy trinity of search engines at the moment is Go

Although no-one can tell you exactly when you will be indexed on any search engine, it's best

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>