

Title:

Identity Fraud Precautions

Word Count:

515

Summary:

Consequences of Identity Fraud

In most parts of the world, identity fraud is the fastest growing offence. Yet, in the USA, a

Keywords:

Identity Fraud

Article Body:

Consequences of Identity Fraud

In most parts of the world, identity fraud is the fastest growing offence. Yet, in the USA, a

Precautions against Identity Fraud

Rigorous research has shown that the following methods will be most effective at preventing id

Freeze your credit, if available in your state. With a credit freeze, no one can open any form

Request your own credit report each year and check the reports for inaccuracies and new lines

Minimize the use of mail for sending or receiving financial documents, checks, and have your m

Check your bank accounts each week online or at an ATM. 70% of identity fraud is detected by t

Use reliable ATM's at reputable sites only. Watch your surroundings for anything suspicious. I

Watch your surrounding when entering sensitive codes of information at an ATM or on a telephon

Do not use wireless phones or cellular phones to talk about sensitive information.

Shred credit-card receipts, used (processed) cheques/checks, junk mail and other such document

Never give out personal information in response to telemarketers and delete all e-mails that c

When shopping online, make sure the company is reputable and displays an approved security sym

Watch your surroundings when using a credit card at any checkout counters or any similar place

Limit the amount of personal information you publish on the web.

Do not allow anyone to copy your identification documents.

If someone calls you claiming to be from a financial institution you do business with asking f

As a general rule, do not do business with people that come to you. If you want something, you Don't order checks preprinted with your driver's license or social security number.

Don't carry your social security card unless absolutely needed.

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1
Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>
Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>