

Title:

Purchasing Websites vs Building Your Own

Word Count:

478

Summary:

When you decide that you want to run your own online business, the question will soon come up

Keywords:

web design

Article Body:

When you decide that you want to run your own online business, the question will soon come up

Building your own website from scratch is a lot of work. You will have to work very hard, and

When you build a new website, you may find it hard for seasoned webmasters to take your site s

Purchasing a website is easier in the sense that if you buy a site that is already established

However, there are a few things you need to know before going out to purchase a website. You n

Join webmaster forums and ask other veteran webmasters their thoughts on the site you're inter

You also want to make sure you buy a site rich in content. Check to make sure the content is c

However, purchasing an established website which is earning money will not be cheap. You can e

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>