

Title:

Still Paying Bills By Mail? Five Reasons to Go Online

Word Count:

359

Summary:

The tedious tasks of writing out checks for bills and making constant trips to the post office

Keywords:

Still Paying Bills By Mail? Five Reasons to Go Online

Article Body:

The tedious tasks of writing out checks for bills and making constant trips to the post office

More and more Americans - about 30 million households, according to recent findings - are disc

Going paperless, however, can mean clicking around on 10 to 15 different creditor Web sites ea

To that end, Web sites such as Paytrust.com, an online favorite with consumers and critics ali

* Enjoy the flexibility of automatic payments. Many sites provide automatic and recurring bill

* Review all bills throughout the year with the click of a mouse. See all the details of your

* Pay anyone, using any bank. From the gas company to the neighborhood kid who mows the lawn,

* Simplify your life by reducing clutter. Can't remember every password to each creditor's Web

* Preserve privacy and security. Online bill paying protects personal and account information

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>