But as I look around at people I know, I see the principle of faith at work in their lives.

Frequently I hear people tell me, "Clinton, this month we will see a 20% increase in sales." A

People tell me, "Clinton, my business will generate a quarter million in sales this year," and
My mentors tell me that the first step to success is setting measurable goals and believing in them.
Poppycock

For years, I had believed that this faith thing was just a bunch of poppycock. Then one day, I
My faith was unshakeable; I knew in that moment that I would make $500 that month and each month thereafter.
Yes, I was able to have an unbreakable belief in myself with my small goal, and then I was able to achieve it.
Just like many other people, when I finally learned and manifested the principle of faith for myself.
Realizing The Power Of Faith In My Online Business

One day, I looked back and realized that chance may have not been in play to bring me my previous success.
One day, the light just came on. I knew deep in my heart that my goal would be realized. In that moment,
Within a few days, my online sales began to increase to a level that was required for me to make my goal.
The Human Condition

Unbreakable faith had delivered twice for me, and yet I let it pass another six months before I could believe it.
My wife and I had been talking about taking a family vacation, but we really did not have the money to do so.
This time, I did not have to prepare myself to accept the faith that my desire would come true.
How did it work out?

Within the next seven days, my business earned $18,000 in pure profit. It truly was a vacation.
Remembering The Sunrise

When you learn to manifest the power of faith in your own life and your business, you also will be able to manifest it in the lives of others.
However you define your goals and success in your own life, they will come true, once you make a commitment to them.
