There are tons of marketers trying to convince would-be entrepreneurs that you will be able to

All are low-cost, high-profit methods.

All are very different from each other.

Some can be totally automated. You don't lift a finger after it's been set up!

Others require some work - but you will enjoy it! (Otherwise you wouldn't start.)

You will discover what they all are.

Whether you have a product to sell or not.

Whether you can write well or not.

Whether you're technically skilled or not.

Some don't use Search Engines or Affiliate Programs AT ALL as their primary marketing methods.

Some use ingenious traffic generation methods you have never noticed before.

All are being operated by very happy, ordinary Internet Entrepreneurs, some of whom have disco
