Internet millionaires don't acquire their wealth and success by luck of the draw. They know the secrets that you don't.

There are two general types of secrets that Internet millionaires know which include external secrets and internal secrets.

First, let's look at the external secrets that Internet millionaires have in their tool kit.

Internet Millionaire Secret #1: Internet millionaires recognize that strategy should be the foundation of their business.

Internet Millionaire Secret #2: Internet millionaires are not generalists. They focus on selling one product or service.

Internet Millionaire Secret #3: Search for and grab untapped markets. Seek out people that have a need for your product or service.

Internet Millionaire Secret #4: Your backend strategy is crucial to success.

You want several profit centers that allow you to sell your products and services to more customers.

Internet Millionaire Secret #5: Try to automate as many services as possible. This will allow you to scale your business.

Internet Millionaire Secret #6: Set up your business so that you are replaceable. You can make your business run without you.

Internet Millionaire Secret #7: Don't work alone; build a team to support your business venture.

Internet millionaires also have internal secrets. An Internet millionaire has self confidence and a strong belief in their product or service.
