

Title:

Mosquito Products. Are they safe for our health ?

Word Count:

563

Summary:

A short review of the mosquito products available on the market today and how safe they are for

Keywords:

Mosquito Products Repellents Zappers

Article Body:

There are plenty of mosquito products we can use to get rid of these nasty insects. Some of the Mosquito products could be classified in two categories based on their purpose. So there are i

To understand how these mosquito products work we must understand what attracts mosquitoes. So

In the first category of mosquito products would be bug zappers and mosquito magnets. An electr

In the second category of mosquito products are the repellents. They work by blocking the rece

DEET (diethyl toluamide) was developed in Orlando in the 1950s and contains a synthetic chemi

Citronella, which is also part of this second mosquito products category, is a volatile, lig

These would be the most important mosquito products available on the market today some of them

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>