

Title:

A new Premier League Season

Word Count:

606

Summary:

The new Premier League season starts on Saturday, 90 days after the last campaign ended with M

Keywords:

Liverpool, Chelsea, Manchest United, Arsenal

Article Body:

In the intervening period more than £350m has been spent as clubs desperate for success search

But for all the money that the likes of Liverpool and Tottenham have lavished on new faces, it

With Uefa Cup places also up for grabs and new boys Birmingham, Derby and Sunderland desperate

And you can keep up to date with all the action on BBC Sport, including:

Highlights on Match of the Day on Saturday evenings (repeated on Sunday mornings) and MOTD2 on

Features, news and updates on Football Focus and Score on BBC One every Saturday.

Live match text commentary on the website and for mobiles plus all the scores and stats, news,

Live commentary on Radio Five Live, with reports from the ground at every Premier League game

Live scores for every matchday on Ceefax and BBCi via your television.

Our 606 website for your views, plus Tim Lovejoy, Alan Green and Spooky on the 606 phone-ins o

United boss Sir Alex Ferguson celebrated his team's success last season by buying Nani, Anders

And with the drawn-out Carlos Tevez saga finally coming to a close, Ferguson has certainly bol

Chelsea, in contrast, have had a relatively thrifty summer, with Lyon's Florent Malouda the on

But the arrival of Tal Ben Haim, Claudio Pizarro and Steve Sidwell on free transfers could be

Those problems have returned, with the likes of John Terry, Didier Drogba, Andrei Shevchenko,

Expectation will be high at Anfield after Liverpool boss Rafa Benitez spent the summer assembl

The likes of Andrey Voronin, Fernando Torres, Yossi Benayoun, Ryan Babel and Lucas Leiva have

Tottenham have again spent big and their fans will hope that it allows them to make the leap i

Fulham's Lawrie Sanchez, Bolton's Sammy Lee, Sunderland's Roy Keane, Derby's Billy Davies and

Eriksson's City remain an intriguing and unknown quantity with the former England coach having

City begin the campaign at West Ham, who have also been active in the transfer market, with So

A new era starts at Newcastle under Sam Allardyce, while Aston Villa will expect greater consi

Blackburn, Everton, Portsmouth and Reading all enjoyed successful seasons last time and face t
Middlesbrough and Wigan will have aspirations of improving on last season.
It all starts on Saturday, with Sunderland entertaining Tottenham in a 1245 BST kick-off.

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1
Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>
Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>