Here are a few bowling tips that need to be observed all times:

1. The bowler should aware of who bowls first on the lanes. The general rule is that whoever bowls first on the lanes.
2. The bowler should always be ready to bowl. Be prepared to take your turn - no unnecessary delays.
3. It is important to show respect to other bowlers whether they are your teammates, opponents or spectators.
4. The bowlers should also learn to observe the rules and guidelines set of the game and follow them strictly.
5. One guideline that should be observed is choosing and using the same ball throughout the game.
6. Bowlers should allow a healthy competition among players by learning to compete with others.
7. Cleanliness and neatness is extremely important. Know where to throw the used drinking cups and other items.

These tips are very helpful in observing etiquette in every bowling alley. Bowling should be a
