

Title:

Caddie Tips For The Beginner

Word Count:

915

Summary:

Caddying for a golfer is not a lot of work, and could be quite enjoyable, especially if you ho

Keywords:

golfer,caddie,golf ball,clubs,golf clubs,players,golf

Article Body:

Caddying for a golfer is not a lot of work, and could be quite enjoyable, especially if you ho

Carrying golf clubs

This task could very well be the toughest of the eight, especially if the golf bag is heavy. K

Placing the golf bag down around greens, fairways, and tee boxes, should be done gently. By do

Washing players golf clubs

This is a fairly simple task, but you have to stay on top of it. Keep a wet towel with you at

Washing players golf ball

Ask the golfer well in advance, if he or she would like their golf ball cleaned. Do not wait u

Replace golfer's divot

Typically you will find divots on fairway shots. That is not always the case. Sometimes they w

Repair ball marks on green

The golfer should do this task. The golfer may ask you to repair the ball mark, if he or she i

Tending the flagstick

Wait for the golfer to ask you to either pull the pin, or tend it. Be nearby to keep play up t

Club selection advice

This particular task is for the experienced caddie, and or caddie that has been with the same

Keep sight of golfer's ball

When your golfer and other golfers are taking a golf shot, always watch where the ball lands.

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>