

Title:

How All Seater Stadiums Have Taken The Atmosphere Out Of Football Grounds

Word Count:

360

Summary:

I have been to watch football matches from a very early age. My father started taking me to wa

Keywords:

football grounds, all seater stadiums, atmosphere

Article Body:

I have been to watch football matches from a very early age. My father started taking me to wa

I remember as a young child feeling quite intimidated by the crowd at Birmingham City's home g

The football team itself, always seemed to struggle each season and we seemed to lose more gam

The supporters had quite a number of songs which they would sing and each season would add a c

The songs and shouted comments were always full of humour and even when the team was losing, t

At certain periods in my teenage years the crowds dropped to under ten thousand per home match

A few years ago, all seater stadiums were introduced for a number of reasons. I rarely go to w

My team themselves have reached the premier league and every home match is a sell out with nea

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>