

Title:

My Top Baseball Teams of All Time - Part Two

Word Count:

428

Summary:

What made some of these teams so great? They were packed with great players is usually a common

Keywords:

Aron Wallad, New York Yankees, Mets, Brooklyn Dodgers, Derek Jeter, Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig,

Article Body:

1955 Brooklyn Dodgers

They won the pennant by 13.5 games. They scored 857 runs while allowing 650 runs during the re

1961 New York Yankees

They won 109 games. They had six players with at least 20 home runs led by Mickey Mantle (54 h

1969 Mets

Because they finished the previous year 24 games out of first place they were not picked very high in the beginning of the year to do well. The

1976 Cincinnati Reds

Won all seven of their playoff games. Scored 857 runs while allowing 633. Seven pitchers with

1984 Detroit Tigers

Won the Eastern Division by 15 games. Started the season in first place and stayed there for t

1998 New York Yankees

Won their division by 22 games. Including playoffs they won 125 games and lost only 50 games f

So there you have it. My 14 greatest teams of all time. You may agree or disagree. But one thi

Feel free to pass this article on to anyone you think would enjoy these stats.

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>