

Title:

OFFENSIVE BASKETBALL: HOW EACH PLAYER PLAYS

Word Count:

791

Summary:

Basketball is a rough sport but people who regularly play the sport make it really fun to watch.

Keywords:

sport, basketball, basketball plays, history of basketball, basketball court dimensions, basketball

Article Body:

Basketball is a rough sport but people who regularly play the sport make it really fun to watch.

Different players of the team have differences in the roles that they play during offense.

The Point Guard acts as the coach on the floor or court during the game. Extensive knowledge of the game is required.

The Off-Guard or the shooting guard acts as the best shooter among the guards of team. In addition, they are also responsible for passing the ball to their teammates.

The Center plays the mean tallest player on the floor or court and is as important as the point guard.

The Small Forward acts as the gifted player of the team. This player should know how to take care of the ball and make the right decisions.

The Power Forward does the dirty work but is like the point guard, small forward and the center.

The sixth man plays the all in one because this player replaces any member of the team on the bench.

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>