

Title:

Paintball -- Retreat to Win

Word Count:

385

Summary:

To realize a common goal, teammates in a paintball game should take two important roles: one i

Keywords:

paintball

Article Body:

Suppression is a way of distracting the opponent so that they fall short by not seeing the oth

A team who uses suppression as a tactic should consist of three or more players. Each member

When making an assault, two or more of the paintball players who are making the suppression co

The other role that is played by the rest of the team is invading. The players that are invol

The invasion players target at least the majority of the opposing team's players. Once they a

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>