

Title:

Parachutes - Choosing Your First 'Chute

Word Count:

523

Summary:

Whatever extreme sport you participate in, the strength and quality of the equipment you use is

Keywords:

parachute,paragliding,extreme sports,hang gliding,skiing,sky diving,sky-diving,skydiving

Article Body:

Whatever extreme sport you participate in, the strength and quality of the equipment you use is

Therefore, it is important to consult experts, preferably in person, before deciding to purchase

However, it would be wrong to dismiss websites selling this equipment. Often they have a great

The two components of a parachute, the glider and the harness can be bought together or separate

Harnesses should come equipped with some kind of body protection ~ this can consist of mousse,

Self-inflating ^Ram air~ airfoils are the most commonly used parachutes for sky diving today.

The technology works by having two different layers of fabric joined by fabric ribs. Vents allow

When they were first developed, a concern about the Ram Air designs was that they deployed far

If you buy your skydiving equipment from a reputable business, they should inform you of the s

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>