Now I know most of you know who this is. It's Detroit's Rasheed Wallace giving his usual playo

I have thought long and hard about this topic and came up with a checklist of sorts to see if

First off, if you are trying to be bold and make a prediction, you or your team must be the un

Nope. Sorry Rasheed, but your team is the heavy favorite to win the NBA Championship. This in

Second, what does a guarantee mean if the game that is being predicted is not the championship

You have come up short once again Rasheed. This is the second round of the playoffs, not even

Finally, make sure you come through with solid play in the game you made a prediction about. T

Would you believe it that Rasheed falls short once again? I would hardly call 7 points and 3 t

So let's sum up what we have learned today. The Pistons are heavy favorites to win this series

I am going to close with one important message to all athletes such as these. Leave the predic
