

Title:

A Short Comparison Of Public Speaking Schools Of Thought: Toastmasters & Carnegie

Word Count:

496

Summary:

As everybody will certainly agree that having the confidence to speak publicly is a valuable s

Currently, the most recognized public speaking associations are Toastmasters International and

Toastmasters International is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the promotion of the princ

Keywords:

public speaking toastmasters

Article Body:

As everybody will certainly agree that having the confidence to speak publicly is a valuable s

Currently, the most recognized public speaking associations are Toastmasters International and

Toastmasters International is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the promotion of the princ

The Dale Carnegie course is a program for self-improvement in which the emphasis is to be able

Toastmasters Pros

Toastmasters certainly makes everything clear-cut when it comes to passing the exams. Each mem

When the member completes these projects, he is recognized to have achieved a level of compet

Members are encouraged to frequently attend meetings and enjoy a sense of camaraderie with fel

Toastmasters Cons

The Toastmasters system seems to not be suited for people who wish to speak well but would lik

The ranking system, though effective to show where the members stand, can also deter people fr

Carnegie Pros

The course encourages the participant to use what works for him to an extent. The rules are fe

There are facilitators but there is no certified examiner. All participants in the session are Carnegie has a positive perception with many businesses.

Carnegie Cons

The Carnegie system has been criticized by some that the time spent in particularly large clas

This goes to show that there are many systems to choose from but only one goal in public speak

