

Title:

A short biography of some of Europe's most loved and hated Monarchs - Pt 2 (Mad) King George III

Word Count:

750

Summary:

Join me as we take a trip back in time, discovering which Monarchs were tyrants, mentally unstable

This series of articles will highlight the lives of Vlad Tepes (Dracula), King Ludwig II and King

Keywords:

british monarchs, George III, King George III

Article Body:

During the last thousand years, European Monarchs have ruled Europe and the world with an iron

These members of royalty have included tyrants, the mentally insane, drunks and the psychotic,

Join me as we take a trip back in time, discovering which Monarchs were tyrants, mentally unstable

This series of articles will highlight the lives of Vlad Tepes (Dracula), King Ludwig II and King

King George III who suffered from porphyria, a maddening disease, was born in 1738 to King

King George III came to the throne in 1760 and was determined to recover the power lost to the

In 1763 The Peace of Paris brought an end to the Seven Years' War with France and Great Britain

Ten years after the ending of war with France, England joined a continental coalition against

Napoleon Bonaparte came to power and in 1803 renewed attacks against England, which lasted until

In 1814, both wars came to an end; Napoleon was defeated and England agreed not to press into

George's madness ultimately left the fate of the crown in the hands of his eldest son George,

King George III died blind, deaf and mad at Windsor Castle on January 29, 1820.

I hope you have enjoyed reading about King George III.

In my next article will learn about the life of King Ludwig II Until then,

Best wishes and have a great day

Stuart Bazga

www.guide-to-castles-of-europe.com

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>