

Title:

College Interviews General Questions

Word Count:

497

Summary:

There are many factors that make a great interview, but the most important of all are the answers

Why research and focus on the questions?

Most applicants feel that they know what they want, and that their life has, in some way driven

Keywords:

college interview, college interviews

Article Body:

There are many factors that make a great interview, but the most important of all are the answers

Why research and focus on the questions?

Most applicants feel that they know what they want, and that their life has, in some way driven

I certainly hope you know why you got to this point in your life and what made you make the choices

This may sound crazy, but trust me, its not. Start talking about your reasons, about your life

Practice answering tough, directed questions about your experience, motivation and goals, be prepared

The following questions will provide you with some ideas and get you started thinking about possible

Preparation is key to success on the interview, so try and think about the interview before you

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>