

Title:

How To Get Parents Involved With School Activities

Word Count:

580

Summary:

Research has repeatedly shown that children succeed academically, socially and emotionally and

But many parents don't seem to show much interest in this cause when they aren't participators

Keywords:

parenting, parents, education, children, involvement

Article Body:

Research has repeatedly shown that children succeed academically, socially and emotionally and

But many parents don't seem to show much interest in this cause when they aren't participators

So how can schools get parents involved with school activities?

Communication is the key. A major reason for lack of parental involvement is lack of clear, st

Parents want to know what their children are learning, what school activities they are involve

Providing this information regularly, consistently and in various formats will help bridge the

Accommodation and inclusion is another strategy for getting parents involved in school activiti

Another way to be accommodating is to invite parents to act as partners in the school decision

Be resourceful. Finally, schools should provide resources for parents who want to learn more a

The opportunities are endless, and if schools and teachers are truly committed to the cause of

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>