

Title:

Interactive Web Based Training - a case study

Word Count:

1692

Summary:

Using virtual classroom training to keep your key employees happy, on the job and up to date i

Keywords:

Web Based Training, Virtual Training, Computer Based Training, WBT, CBT

Article Body:

With the constantly changing economy, it's hard to judge from day to day how much or even if y

Training is expensive and it is an investment in your most precious resource, your employees.

What is the result of all of this? Less money spent on training, less productivity, higher pa
Training can be broken down into interactive and non-interactive. Non-interactive are things

How is IWBT the answer? IWBT is instructor led training (interactive learning) conducted in a

IWBT also is usually cheaper, easier to schedule, has neither associated travel cost nor does
As you can see IWBT can offer some valid benefits for your organization, less expensive, no lo
I have been teaching IWBT classes for several years now. I have taught courses on computer ha

The iLinc product also offers a virtual meeting room capabilities that Compass and it's busine
Compass is also using IWBT to help train the business partner's clients. They will have strea

When everything is up and operational, Compass hopes to improve business partner and customer

IWBT is a great way to improve your training regardless of the size of the organization.

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>