

Title:

Michigan Schools Taking Direction from Governor Granholm

Word Count:

460

Summary:

Governor Jennifer M. Granholm has a vision for the state of Michigan and the Michigan schools.

Keywords:

Michigan Schools

Article Body:

Governor Jennifer M. Granholm has a vision for the state of Michigan and the Michigan schools.

She believes that smaller high schools allow students to develop relationships and interact mo

It has been proven across the nation that smaller high schools with smaller classes make a big

Specific Michigan schools are being targeted first for smaller school and classroom developmen

After the Cherry Commission's recommendations, the Governor called on state lawmakers to pass

Other incentives under the Governor's program include:

- A proposed New Merit Scholarship for Michigan schools students, who go to college and
- The Governor has called for a statewide mandatory curriculum for the Michigan schools
- Beginning with the class of 2008, Michigan schools students will be required to take t

The Michigan schools want to prepare every student for success in college, in the workplace, a

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>