

Title:

Ohio Schools Award $4 Million to School Districts for Teacher Training in Mathematics and Science

Word Count:

512

Summary:

In June 2006, the Ohio schools awarded more than $4 million in competitive grants to school districts.

Keywords:

ohio schools

Article Body:

In June 2006, the Ohio schools awarded more than $4 million in competitive grants to school districts.

The MSP grants, which are funded throughout the 2006-2007 school year, will give 1,800 teachers

The program partners colleges and universities with high-need school districts to provide the

The need, according to Susan Rave Zelman, superintendent of public instruction for the Ohio schools.

The Ohio schools received 24 proposals for the grants. The ten grants will address either mathematics

Other Mathematics and Science Partnerships within the Ohio schools include The Mathematics Coaches

The Mathematics Coaches Project. In partnership with Ohio University, mathematics faculty members

K-3 Mathematics: The Early Foundation. This program helps Ohio schools kindergarten through third

Middle Grade Mathematics: The Critical Bridge. The Middle Grade Math program prepares Ohio schools

Topics Foundational to Calculus. For Ohio schools eighth through twelfth-grade mathematics teachers

Unlike previous statewide teacher development programs, the new Ohio schools initiatives emphasize

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>