

Title:

Preparing for Emergency Situations at School

Word Count:

475

Summary:

We know emergency situations can (and will at some point) happen in your class. It may be mind

Keywords:

teacher, school, student, education, emergency, student-teacher, schools, students, teachers

Article Body:

We know emergency situations can (and will at some point) happen in your class. It may be mind

Fire drills are probably the most common situations you will encounter. The best way to handle

Making sure all of your students are accounted for is your main responsibility. Thus, your att

Teach your students to exit the room carefully yet quickly. Instruct them in which direction t

And let them know why it's important to maintain composure and control, not playing or wanderi

You'll want to let the students know how to react to different situations. They may find thems

Obviously more urgent matters will constitute true emergencies, and it is very difficult to pr

-----
For this article, and more on teaching and education, be sure to check out our website:
<http://www.starteaching.com>

Frank Holes, Jr. is the editor of the StarTeaching website and the bi-monthly newsletter, Feat
http://www.starteaching.com/Features\_for\_Teachers\_jan1.htm

You can contact Frank at:
editor@starteaching.com

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1
Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>
Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>