

Title:

Report Card On Florida Schools Policy To End Social Promotion

Word Count:

741

Summary:

Though it is the fourth largest public school system in the United States, Florida Schools have

Keywords:

Florida Schools

Article Body:

Though it is the fourth largest public school system in the United States, Florida Schools have

Social promotion is the act of passing onto the next grade a student, who lacks the basic require

Study research has long held that retention does harm not good, with studies of retained studen

Florida schools believe that part of this stigma is due to only a small percentage of low-scoring

Many educators today believe that much of the previous study results were due to only students

Slowly but steadily, school districts across the United States have begun to require students

After implementing its retention policy, Florida schools wanted a study to determine the scienti

The Florida schools' study compared 2001 low-scoring third graders (before the implementation

The findings of the Florida schools' study showed that the performance gain of the retained st

The study provides valuable information on the short-term effectiveness of the Florida schools

Overall, the study shows that increased efforts by teachers and students to avoid a second ret

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>