

Title:

San Jose Schools' Alternative Education Program Saves Troubled Students

Word Count:

577

Summary:

San Jose Schools face the same problem that all school districts around the country face, losing

Keywords:

San Jose Schools

Article Body:

A Different Kind of Education

San Jose Schools face the same problem that all school districts around the country face, losing

For some students the traditional school format doesn't work. Students can become apathetic and

Helping Students to Learn

The alternative education program of San Jose School District could become a model for the rest of the

San Jose Unified School District has created smaller alternative specialty campuses inside six

The principal of San Jose School District's alternative program, Linda Ferdig-Riley, uses information

How San Jose School District's Alternative Program Compares

This program appears to be working; San Jose School District has around a seven percent dropout

Other alternative educational programs in the state keep the students from actively feeling the

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>