

Title:

The Simple Magic Of Reading

Word Count:

485

Summary:

^Books make a complete man,~ said a man centuries ago.

This holds true today as yesterday. Sadly, the young generation might have lost interest in re

Keywords:

reading,reading speed,speed read

Article Body:

^Books make a complete man,~ said a man centuries ago.

This holds true today as yesterday. Sadly, the young generation might have lost interest in re

Maybe we must only remind ourselves of the reasons why we must read. Knowing the right reason

We read to be informed. The primary reason why people usually start reading is that they want

We learn from the triumphs and downfalls of men throughout history through their life stories.

Moreover, we enhance our capability to express ourselves through language and the arts. We lea

We read books to be entertained. Depending on their type, reading materials allows us to exper

An author once wisely said that reading a novel is very similar to watching a movie in our min

We read books to be empowered. One example of this is our seemingly perfunctory habit of readi

We keep track of events, see them from the perspective of both sides, and place events in the

We read to be informed, entertained, and empowered. Reading allows us to explore magical world

Go ahead, grab a book and have a grand time reading!

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>