

Title:

Using DVD and Video in Your ESL Class - Part Two

Word Count:

547

Summary:

Have you ever wondered how to use video in your ESL classes, without just sitting your student

Keywords:

esl, efl, esol, tesol, tefl, tesl, teaching english, esl video, learning english, learn english

Article Body:

Have you ever wondered how to use video in your ESL classes, without just sitting your student

1 Vocabulary in context

Choose a scene (no longer than two or three minutes) with some dialogue rich in vocabulary. Ma

2 Subtitles

A big advantage of DVD over video is the subtitles feature. Playing a scene with subtitles in

3 News

If you have access to TV news in English, record a news story with plenty of visual footage. F

4 Cultures

This activity could be used in a conversation class about cultural differences. Find a short e

5 Voices in my head

Choose a short scene with some interesting and expressive dialogue between two or more charact

A short video sequence with a clearly focused activity is an effective and motivating way to b

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>