

Title:

Virginia Schools Signs Agreement With SACS CASI For School Division Accreditations

Word Count:

373

Summary:

The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) was founded in 1895. It is a voluntary

In the spring of 2006, the Virginia schools signed an agre...

Keywords:

Virginia Schools

Article Body:

The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) was founded in 1895. It is a voluntary

In the spring of 2006, the Virginia schools signed an agreement with SACS CASI. Under this agr

Only Virginia schools divisions may be accredited by SACS CASI. To quality, all schools within

Additionally, a joint steering committee will coordinate the:

- Division accrediting process,
- Training and technical support,
- Recognition for achieving accreditation, and
- Will encourage all Virginia schools divisions to participate in the program.

Though the program is voluntary for the school divisions, the Virginia schools views the agree

The SACS CASI accreditation process compares the Virginia schools' policies, practices and con

Accredited Virginia schools demonstrate their commitment to best practices, quality instructio

An added benefit is to the state and local Virginia schools leaders, who share these promising

At the time of this writing, both Hanover and Roanoke County school divisions have been accred

With encouragement from both SACS CASI and the Virginia schools, we should see many other scho

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>