

Title:

Why casinos need 24 hour day care

Word Count:

498

Summary:

By requiring casinos to offer daycare they could help save the lives of children of gambling a

Keywords:

Children, addiction, society, social issues, parenting, sports and leisure, entertainment, cas

Article Body:

Recently in the news across the USA there have been several reports of parents leaving their c

A great way to stop this from happening would be to legalize online gambling so that parents t

Another solution would be for the casino industry to take responsibility of the people they lu

As well as making sure children are not being neglected by their parents or legal guardians, t

Please do not get me wrong I feel the parents should be the ones taking responsibility for the

Besides being the right move for the casinos to make for its own civic duty, it also makes goo

The parents could relax and have a little fun with the knowledge that their kids are being tak

This is not a new concept there are several casinos in Las Vegas that offer day care. These ce

By doing this the casinos will get more business and they are doing the responsible thing for

If enough people recommend this to their local casinos and state officials, casinos could be r

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>