Ever walked into a house that felt like home? Ever reminisced about the best year of your life?

Simply put, Feng Shui is about creating a harmonious environment. It's the ancient Chinese Science

Pronounced, "Fung Shway", it was a jealously guarded secret for thousands of years. Now, the book

June from June Turner Designs and Lifestyles has been an expert Feng Shui practitioner for 13

The key is energy (or Qi "Chee"). June offers ten quick tips that can improve the flow, transform

1) Remove shoes before entering a home. Don't take your problems in with you.

2) Cook at least one meal a day and eat at the table as a family.

3) Never have knives on show ~ even in a block.

4) Always sit or stand facing the door (or its reflection).

5) Keep the toilet lid down and bathroom and laundry doors closed.

6) Don't sleep under white blankets or doonas.

7) Don't sleep with your feet facing the bedroom door.

8) Don't sleep next to the wall that has the metre box on it.

9) If your front door is in line with a tree or the door of the house opposite, place a Ba Gua

10) Never have a Ba Gua mirror in the house. They are far too powerful.

It's no coincidence that some of these tips are just common sense. You've probably been practicing

According to June, "this is just the tip of the iceberg. Just a few little changes can make the
