

Title:
Alcohol Rehab

Word Count:
472

Summary:
Alcohol abuse refers to the chronic consumption and craving for alcohol, so that it interferes

Keywords:
rehab, alcohol rehab, cardiac rehab, drug rehab

Article Body:
Alcohol abuse refers to the chronic consumption and craving for alcohol, so that it interferes

The alcoholic is unable to stop his craving for drinking. He fails to complete his obligations

Alcoholism can be fatal. It affects the addict's health in many ways. Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (

Alcohol Rehab must be done carefully by trained medical professionals. It involves evaluation

Medical treatment of alcoholism involves initially the management of alcohol withdrawal. Trea

After medical management is over, a psychosocial Rehabilitation program must be undertaken. Th

There are some important points to remember. Supervised withdrawal is the first step and must

The program must involve a major amount of therapy--counseling and occupational. Therapy or co

Treatment involves continuous monitoring for alcohol use. Some people may require medication f

The main point is that there is no singular Rehab formula. The success of treatment depends on

The treatment may be long-term, involving periods of relapse. The crucial point is not to give

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1
Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>
Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>