If you have ever wondered what kinds of beliefs you have stored away in your unconscious that

The life you currently live is a reflection of your beliefs about what you are willing to accept

For instance, people who continue to stay in abusive relationships, work at jobs they don't enjoy

Yet there are individuals in society who will never ever accept being unjustly treated, living

These individuals are those who stand out in the crowd: the entrepreneurs, pioneers, and leaders

They do this not because they are better or more gifted than everyone else, but simply because

It is important to remember that we all play an active role in the creation of our belief systems

Once these beliefs are impressed on our unconscious mind, they become the rulebook that controls

All your successes and failures, then, are in some way influenced by this unconscious set of rules

Much of the struggle you experience in life relates to the inner turmoil you feel when you make

To end this struggle and become the master of your own destiny, you must therefore master the
