Even if we give high regards to integrity and dignity as values taught everywhere in the world

More than ever, there is a necessity for us to instill in ourselves not just good reputation,

William Hersey Davis has this to tell us:

The circumstances amid which you live determine your reputation...

The truth you believe determines your character...

Reputation is what you are supposed to be...

Character is what you are...

Reputation is the photograph;

Character is the face...

Your reputation is made in a moment;

Your character is built in a lifetime...

Your reputation is learned in an hour;

Your character does not come to light for a year...

Reputation grows like a mushroom;

Character lasts like eternity...

Reputation makes you rich or makes you poor;

Character makes you happy or makes you miserable...

Reputation is what men say about you on your tombstone;

Character is what the angels say about you...

We must be able to master ourselves by knowing both our internal and external characteristics.

Let us rear an honest heart. It calls for conquering our weaknesses, fears, faults and other u
