Article Body:

What does Gratitude really mean? Most of us are thankful for the blessings we have in our lives.

Most of us are very grateful for these blessings, but how often do we stop to focus and reflect?

There is a very good reason! Have you ever given someone a gift, and when they open it they react?

The one Universal Law that has had the most profound effect in my life is, Like Attracts Like.

True gratitude isn't the act of mechanically listing the blessings in our lives every night before bed.

Okay, so maybe not everything in our lives is perfect right now. Gratitude can be hard to foster.

That's where Faith comes in. Gratitude and Faith go hand in hand. Gratitude is reflecting on a blessing.

You know what I'm grateful for? You. Every single one of you who is reading these words right now.

Be thankful for the ways in which you touch the lives of others. Some of them you may not even know.

Take time to reflect on the good things in your life, not just today, but every day. Really let it sink in.
