

Title:

Nurturing Creative Children: Dr. YKK Quotes

Word Count:

208

Summary:

Nurturing Creative Children is one of the little treasures Dr. YKK has put together in his quotes.

Keywords:

YKK, Nurtur, Creativ, Child, Yew, Kam, Keong, Quote

Article Body:

"Creativity is more of a dull glow than a divine spark - the more fanning it receives, the brighter it becomes."

· James Adams

"More often than not, children are unevenly gifted, often being especially gifted in one area."

· Ellen Winner

^ Avoid compulsion and let early education be a manner of amusement. Young children learn by game."

· Plato

^ I have never let my schooling interfere with my education. ~"

· Mark Twain

^ As parents, we must refrain from showing favoritism, and from comparing our children with others."

· Johann Christoph Arnold

^ Alas, how much is in our education and in our social institutions to prepare us and our children for the future."

· Goethe

^ The home is the principle learning environment for the child and parents are the primary educators."

· Thomas Armstrong

" But when it comes to children, parental involvement is a must. This is because children often learn from their parents."

· John Andersen

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>