

Title:

Self Esteem And Addiction

Word Count:

698

Summary:

Self esteem is something I believe that we would all like to have but when you have some power

None of us like to think we are addicted to something and are adamant that we are in complete

There are many different type of addictions such as alcohol, drugs,...

Keywords:

Life after addictions, long term personal goals, happiness in life, a happy life, happy life,

Article Body:

Self esteem is something I believe that we would all like to have but when you have some power

None of us like to think we are addicted to something and are adamant that we are in complete

There are many different type of addictions such as alcohol, drugs, overeating, sex, perfection

Once the person faces up to the fact that they do have a problem, and that is most certainly t

How do I know this? ~ well I reckon I'm pretty much an expert in the field of addiction to alc

What happened to me on that day in December 2002 was nothing short of a modern day miracle ~ o

I just had to write about what happened on that day which is what I have done in the hope that

A recent testimonial, excerpts of which are included below, show just why I want this book to re

I LAVISHED your book. My life was in shambles; my wife had divorced me and tonight I was in su

Roy Thompson, Atlanta, Georgia - royjrthompson@bellsouth.net

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>