

Title:

The Art Of The Subliminal Message & The Power Of The CIA

Word Count:

710

Summary:

What do the CIA and subliminal messages have in common? Why did the CIA invest in research into

Keywords:

subliminal, hypnosis, personal growth, personal development, self improvement,

Article Body:

It was as early as 1957 that we were first introduced to the power of subliminal programming.

William Dawson and other legislators, In Washington D.C., immediately launched a campaign get

Even though there was no real hard evidence to substantiate any of Dawson's claims the huge an

This is the accepted reason for the British, Australian and USA Governments legislation to ban

During the raging debate over the effectiveness of subliminal advertising and the outcry for t

In recently released classified documents, now available under The Freedom Of Information Act,

Under intense pressure from investigative journalists and Congressional Investigators, the CIA

In the excellent book by Martin A. Lee, a former agent with the CIA who remains unnamed tells

In a January 17th 1958 declassified document, the CIA stated that it might be possible to incl

No-one can be sure if the CIA ever concluded their investigations into subliminal technology,

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>