

Title:

The Greatest Gift

Word Count:

372

Summary:

Mimi and I had gone on an aunt-niece shopping adventure, and at age 15, I became the proud owner

Keywords:

holding difficult conversation, assertiveness, family dynamics, holidays, Christmas, gifts, self-

Article Body:

"Go ahead, Judy, talk to your father. What do you want to say?" With these words offered by my

Mimi and I had gone on an aunt-niece shopping adventure, and at age 15, I became the proud owner

Before that moment, I believe I didn't know that I could have wishes of my own, schooled as I

I opened my mouth and talked to my father. I don't remember exactly what I said - it's not imp

Every time words get stuck in my throat, that moment comes to me, and I think: "Judy, what do

This was the greatest gift I ever received from another human being. And it was a gift I could

In the spirit of giving, what will you give yourself and your relationships? Is there a "stuck

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>