The International Herpes Alliance defines the role of a support group as an entity that can provide support and information.

People usually feel very anxious at the beginning. Is this the end of my sex life? Is there a cure?

If you feel very anxious, ashamed or dirty you may want to participate in a local herpes support group.

Offline support groups can offer human face-to-face contact. That is essential for people who are struggling.

I feel that taking care of the physical part of the disease is like treating 20% of the pain with medication.

Herpes can be controlled and doesn't have the power to ruin our love or sex lives. We do. If you are struggling, please reach out.

You can find a list of local herpes support groups on my website.
