"What Really Makes You Tick?" 10 questions you should ask to yourself: a preparation to self-improvement

Be all you can be, but it's not always in the Army. I often see myself as somewhat contented with my life.

Still I aspire for something deeper and more meaningful.

So we're all pelted with problems. Honestly it shouldn't even bother or even hinder us to become better.

1. What do I really want?

The question of the ages. So many things you want to do with your life and so little time to do them.

Find something that you are good at can help realize that small step towards improvement. Diligence is key.

2. Should I really change?

Today's generation has taken another level of redefining 'self', or at least that's what the kids are doing.

If history has taught us one thing, it's the life that we have gone through. Try to see if you can improve.

3. What's the bright side in all of this?

With so much is happening around us there seem to be no room for even considering that light at the end of the tunnel.

4. Am I comfortable with what I'm doing?

There's always the easy way and the right way when it comes to deciding what goes with which situation.

5. Have I done enough for myself?

Have you, or is there something more you want to do? Discontentment in every aspect can be dangerous.

6. Am I happy at where I am today?

It's an unfair question so let it be an answer! You love being a good and loving mom or dad to your children.

7. Am I appealing to the opposite sex?

So maybe I don't have an answer to that, but that doesn't mean I can't try it, though. Whether you're a man or a woman.

8. How much could I have?

I suppose in this case there is no such things on having things too much or too little, but it's a good question.

9. What motivates me?

What motivates you? It's an answer you have to find out for yourself. There are so many things that can motivate you.

10. What Really Makes You Tick?

So? What really makes you tick? You can be just about anything you always wanted to be, but to be successful you need to know what you want.
