

Title:

Why Do We Quit?

Word Count:

669

Summary:

Giving examples of why home businesses don't work or why people don't take advantage of the to

Keywords:

work at home, earn money, save money, inspiration, motivation, family, business, home

Article Body:

I've been in my own business for over 2 years. I'm in the business of helping ours. I show the

I've helped many switch stores and refer others. I give them every advantage possible. I give

I realize life does get in the way. Things pop up that we have no control. That's just life. I

Here are the 5 top reasons I think people quit before they even start:

1. They don't know what to do next ..
2. It is actual work .
3. We have to talk to people
4. Our friends and family have talked us out of it ..
5. I signed up and no one was there to help

Here are the answers to those reasons:

1. They don't know what to do next, so they just sit there. You need to step up and ask what i
2. Yes, you need to work to make your business succeed. Everything in life is work. Nothing is
3. Yes, we do have to talk to people. It's just like the commercials on tv. If you don't know
4. Friends and family. Boy, they know everything and they have your best interests at heart, r
5. I've heard people say it didn't work because when they signed up the person disappeared. I'

Let me ask you .who do you think will succeed in business out of these 4 people:

- 2 have cancelled without even trying.
- 1 is ready to cancel and has not show up to any of the appointments.
- The last one has been at every team call, talked to others and has taken every step describe

Which one did you pick? The last one! Correct!!

I admit it, I've thought about turning in the towel when life got in the way. But I know I wil

My question to you is. If you are looking for a home business and you receive one-on-one train

I'd like you to read my next article called ^How do you pronounce that?~

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>